

From the January 2008 Issue of Wonderful West Virginia Magazine:

| Reader Picks

Hellbender Burritos in Davis

For a wholesome, delicious, and fun meal in Davis, stop at Hellbender Burritos, a little restaurant named for the largest salamander in North America. Our party of four shared four different burritos and liked them all! The “Shrimp Hellbender” has a SPICY garlic buffalo sauce and homemade bleu cheese dressing, while the “Goofy Foot” features tofu grilled in soy sauce and a creamy and flavorful dressing. We also recommend the “Lost Hiker,” with guacamole, veggies, and shredded cheese, and the “Classic Chicken Burrito,” which definitely lives up to its name. Many options are unique and most ingredients are homemade. The portions are generous. The key lime pie for dessert is excellent and they feature a full bar. For hours and other information, you can visit www.hellbenderburritos.com or call 304.259.5557.

Martha Ballman
South Charleston, WV